

Jim Kolb authored the nationally validated Marine Science Project: FOR SEA curricular materials which formed the basis for the Marine Explorations CD-ROM series. He also authored the Puget Soundbook and is a principal author in the "Puget Sound Project" curriculum series. Jim has taught people of all ages, from preschoolers to post-graduates; directed the Poulsbo Marine Science Center and the Marine Science Society of the Pacific Northwest; and, served as principal investigator of several National Science Foundation projects. His programs have been validated by the U.S. Department of Education, awarded exemplary science program citations by the National Science Teachers Association, and have been awarded Presidential Citations for excellence.

Jim lives with the love of his life, Mary Catherine, and their two children Thomas and Catherine. While he enjoys remodeling, bicycling, and running, he most enjoys spending time with his family at the beach.
